A person having committed an administrative offence shall be held liable based on the legislation in effect at the time and in the place the offence has been committed.

Acts mitigating or abolishing the liability for administrative offences shall have retroactive effect, i.e. they shall apply also to the offences committed before the publication of those acts. Acts establishing or aggravating the liability for administrative offences shall have no retroactive effect.

Proceedings for cases of administrative offences shall be conducted based on the legislation in effect at the time and place of the investigation of the case regarding the offence.

SECTION II

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFENCE AND ADMINISTRATIVE LIABILITY

I. GENERAL PART

CHAPTER 2

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFENCE AND LIABILITY FOR COMMITTING IT

Article 9. Concept of administrative offence

An administrative offence (misdemeanour) shall be illegal, culpable (intentional or negligent) action or inaction against the state or public order, the ensuring of state security, the socialist property, the rights and freedoms of citizens, the established governmental order, for which administrative liability is provided for by the legislation.

Administrative liability shall arise for offences provided for by this Code unless these offences by their nature give rise to criminal liability in accordance with the legislation in effect.

(Article 9 supplemented by HO-87-N of 1 March 2023)

Article 10. Committing an administrative offence intentionally

An administrative offence shall be considered as committed intentionally where the person committing it has realised the illegal nature of his or her action or inaction, foreseen its harmful consequences and wished for them, or deliberately allowed these consequences to arise.

Article 11. Committing an administrative offence negligently

An administrative offence shall be considered as committed negligently where the person having committed it has foreseen the possibility of occurrence of harmful consequences of his or her action or inaction but carelessly hoped to prevent them, or has failed to foresee the possibilities of occurrence of such consequences, even though he was obliged to and may have foreseen them.

Article 12. The age upon attaining which administrative liability arises

Persons who have attained the age of sixteen before the moment of committing an administrative offence shall be subject to administrative liability.

Article 13. Liability of minors

Measures provided for by the Charter of the Commissions on Juvenile Cases approved by the Presidium of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Armenia shall apply to persons who have committed administrative offences between the ages of sixteen and eighteen.

Persons between the ages of sixteen and eighteen shall be subject to administrative liability on general basis in case of committing administrative offences provided for by Articles 53, 123-131.1, 160, 172, 173, 182, 190-193 of this Code. Taking into consideration the nature of the offence and the personality of the offender, the cases related to the persons specified (except for persons having committed offences provided for by Article 182 of the Code) may be referred, and in case of commission of offences provided for by Article 53 of the Code, shall, as a rule, be referred to commissions on juvenile cases of the executive committees of the regional (city), district councils for examination.

Minors between the ages of sixteen and eighteen may, on general basis, be subject to administrative liability also in other cases explicitly provided for by legislative acts of the USSR.

(Article 13 amended by HO-362-N of 2 October 2024)

Article 14. Liability of officials

Officials shall be subject to administrative liability for such administrative offences that are related to failure to comply with the rules prescribed in the field of ensuring the security of the state, governmental order, state and public order, protection of the nature, health of the population, and other rules, ensuring the compliance therewith falls within their official duties.

Within the meaning of this Code, an official of a political party shall be a member of the executive body of a political party responsible for actions (inaction) entailing liability by this Code, or a responsible member or employee of a political party that performs organisational-managerial, administrative and economic functions, based on the Charter or other documents of a political party.

(Article 14 supplemented by HO-4-N of 29 December 2020, HO-343-N of 2 October 2024)

Article 15. Liability of military servicepersons and other persons for committing administrative offences, subject to disciplinary codes

Officers of the republican executive bodies of defence, national security, state preservation and the police and the rescue service of the Republic of Armenia, military servicepersons, as well as conscripts called up for mobilisation, shall bear disciplinary liability for administrative offences. Persons referred to in this part shall bear administrative liability on general basis for violating the rules of hunting, fishing and conservation of fishery resources, violating customs rules, violating the requirements of the legislation in the field of ensuring road traffic safety. Administrative penalty shall not be imposed on the specified persons for violating the rules of hunting, fishing and conservation of fishery resources, violating customs rules. Administrative penalty shall not be imposed on the specified persons for violating the requirements of the legislation in the field of ensuring road traffic safety where the offence has been committed by service vehicles.

Persons other than those referred to in this part, subject to disciplinary codes or specific disciplinary statutes, shall bear disciplinary liability for administrative offences in cases explicitly provided for thereby, and in the rest of cases — administrative liability on general basis.

In cases referred to in the first part of this Article the bodies that are vested with the right to impose administrative fines, may, rather than imposing fines, transfer the materials on offences to relevant bodies to resolve the issue of subjecting guilty persons to disciplinary liability.

(Article 15 edited by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005, edited, amended by HO-2-N of 7 February 2012, edited by HO-178-N of 21 December 2015, amended by HO-82-N of 16 May 2016, supplemented by HO-233-N of 16 December 2016, HO-457-N of 15 November 2024)

Article 16. Liability of foreign citizens and stateless persons

Foreign citizens and stateless persons in the territory of the Republic of Armenia shall be subject to administrative liability on general basis as the USSR citizens.

The issue of liability for administrative offences committed by the foreign citizens in the territory of the Republic of Armenia who enjoy the right to immunity with respect to administrative liability of the USSR and the Republic of Armenia under the effective laws and international agreements of the USSR shall be resolved through diplomatic channels.

Article 17. Extreme necessity

The person who, although having committed an action provided for by this Code or by other regulatory acts prescribing administrative liability for administrative offences, has acted in a situation of extreme necessity, i.e. to eliminate a danger threatening the state or public order, the socialist property, the rights and freedoms of citizens, the established governmental order, where under the given circumstances that danger could not have been eliminated by other means and where the damage caused is of lesser importance than the damage prevented, shall not be subject to administrative liability.

Article 18. Necessary defence

The person who, although having committed an action provided for by this Code or by other regulatory acts prescribing administrative liability for administrative offences, has acted in a state of necessary defence, i.e. he or she has been protecting the state or public order, the socialist property, the rights and freedoms of citizens, the established governmental order against criminal encroachment by causing damage to the person committing encroachment, moreover, where the necessary defence limits have not been exceeded, shall not be subject to administrative liability..

Article 19. Insanity

A person, who has been in a state of insanity while committing an illegal action or inaction, i.e. due to chronic mental illness, temporary mental impairment, dementia or other morbid condition he or she could not realise his or her actions or to control those actions, shall not be subject to administrative liability.

Article 20. Transferring the materials on administrative offences to comrades' court, non-governmental organisation or labour collective for examination

A person having committed an administrative offence shall be released from administrative liability, and the materials shall be transferred to the comrades' court, non-governmental organisation or labour collective for examination, where it is appropriate to impose a measure of public influence thereon, considering the nature of the offence committed and the personality of the offender.

The materials on the persons released, on the grounds referred to in the first part of this Article, from the administrative liability for committing offences provided for by Articles 126, 129, 133, 159, 163, 174-177 of this Code, may also be transferred to the Commission against Alcoholism established in an enterprise, an institution, organisation and their structural subdivisions for examination.

The administration, the Commission against Alcoholism established in the enterprise, institution, organisation and their structural subdivisions, comrades' court or the non-governmental organisation shall — within a period of ten days from the day of obtaining the materials — be obliged to notify the body having sent the materials (the official) of the measures of public influence imposed on persons having committed administrative offences provided for by Articles 53, 126, 129, 133, 159, 163, 165, 172, 174-177 of this Code.

Article 21. Possibility of releasing from administrative liability for an offence of lesser significance

Where the administrative offence committed is of lesser significance, the body authorised to decide the case (the official) may release the offender from administrative liability and content itself with oral reprimand.

In cases when the violation of the road traffic rule has been captured through video-recording or photographing, the procedure prescribed by the first part of this Article may also be applied during the appeal proceedings by way of superiority.

(Article 21 supplemented by HO-78-N of 21 June 2014)

Article 21¹. Releasing from liability persons subjected to human trafficking or exploitation

1. A person subjected to human trafficking or exploitation shall be released from administrative liability for the offence which he or she has committed under coercion in the course of the human trafficking or exploitation against them.

(Article 21.¹ supplemented by HO-213-N of 17 December 2014)

Article 21². Amnesty

1. A person having committed an administrative offence may be fully or partially released from administrative liability by the Law "On amnesty" adopted by the National Assembly, and a person subjected to an administrative penalty may be fully or partially exempted from both the main and supplementary administrative penalties.

(Article 21.¹ supplemented by HO-372-N of 12 July 2018)

CHAPTER 3

ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY

Article 22. Objectives of an administrative penalty

An administrative penalty shall be considered as a penalty and shall be applied, pursuing an objective of educating the person having committed an administrative offence in the spirit of abiding by the Soviet laws, respecting the rules of socialist community life, as well as preventing him or her, i.e. the offender, and other persons from committing new offences.

Article 23. Types of administrative penalties

The following administrative penalties may be imposed for committing administrative offences:

(1) warning;

(1.1) penalty point;

(2) fine;

(3) compensated seizure of an item deemed an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence;

(4) confiscation of an item deemed an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence;

(4.1) suspension of the right to drive vehicles;

(5) deprivation of the special right;

(6) (point repealed by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005)

(7) (point repealed by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005)

(8) suspension of economic activity.

Legislative acts of the USSR and the Republic of Armenia may define also types of administrative penalties other than those referred to in this Article, in compliance with the principles of fundamentals and general provisions of the legislation of the USSR and the Union Republics on administrative offences.

The legislation of the USSR may also provide for administrative eviction of foreign citizens and stateless persons from the borders of the USSR for committing administrative offences gravely violating the Soviet legal order.

(Article 23 edited on 1 May 1992, amended by HO-85 of 4 November 1996, HO-133 of 23 June 1997, HO-32-N of 16 December 2005, supplemented, edited by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019, supplemented by HO-456-N of 9 October 2020)

Article 24. Main and supplementary administrative penalties

Penalty points, compensated seizure and confiscation of items may be imposed both as main and supplementary administrative penalties; other administrative penalties listed in the first part of Article 23 of this Code may be imposed only as main penalties.

Main or main and supplementary penalties may be imposed for one administrative offence.

(Article 24 amended by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019)

Article 25. Warning

Warning, as a measure of administrative penalty, may be made in writing. In cases provided for by the legislation the warning may be recorded by other means prescribed.

Article 25¹. Penalty points

1. Penalty points shall be applied to persons having committed violation of road traffic rules (legislation in the field of ensuring the road traffic safety) in the cases explicitly provided for by the Special Part of this Code.

2. A person having the right to drive vehicles shall be granted 13 points for a period of one year from the day of obtaining a driving licence (including a digital one) for the right to drive vehicles in the Republic of Armenia (from the day of expiry of the period of suspension of the right to drive vehicles). A foreigner holding a driving licence obtained in the other state and record-registered in the State Register of Population shall be granted points from the day of record-registration in the State Register of Population (from the day of expiry of the period of suspension of the right to drive vehicles). A person having the right to drive vehicles shall be granted 13 points for a period of each subsequent one year, and the balance of points of the previous year shall not be transferred to the subsequent year.

3. In case a violation of the road traffic rules (of the legislation in the field of ensuring road traffic safety) is recorded, the penalty points prescribed for the offence provided for by the relevant Article of the Special Part of this Code shall automatically be taken off the total points granted to the person having committed an administrative offence in the given year (within a period of one year).

4. Appealing against the decision imposing an administrative penalty in the form of a penalty point may not prevent the emergence of its legal implications for administrative offences committed in the given year and provided for by Article 129.3 of this Code where as a result of examination of the appeal, the decision on imposing an administrative penalty enters into force during the subsequent year.

5. Where the points taken off for the offence provided for by the relevant Article of the Special Part of this Code exceed the balance of points granted to the person, the penalty points shall be taken off in the amount of that balance, regardless of the amount of the penalty points prescribed for the given offence.

6. Penalty points 0.25, 0.5, 1, 1.5, 2, 3, 4 or 5 shall be applied as a measure of administrative liability for administrative offences provided for by this Code.

(Article 25.¹ supplemented by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019, amended, edited by HO-75-N of 26 March 2025, supplemented by HO-258-N of 3 July 2025)

Article 26. Fine

(Article 26 amended by HO-73 of 11 May 1992, 18 August 1993, HO-133 of 23 June 1997, repealed by HO-495-N of 11 December 2002)

Article 27. Compensated seizure of an item deemed an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence

Compensated seizure of an item deemed an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence shall be the act of compulsory seizure and then sales of the item, by transferring the received amount to the former owner and deducting the costs for selling the seized item.

Compensated seizure of weapon and ammunition may not be applied to persons, for whom hunting is the main source of survival.

The procedure for compensated seizure and types of objects subject to seizure shall be established by the legislation of the USSR, this Code and other legislation of the Republic of Armenia.

(Article 27 amended by HO-155-N of 9 June 2022, HO-45-N of 16 January 2024)

Article 28. Confiscation of an item deemed an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence

Confiscation of an item deemed an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence shall be the act of transferring that article to state or community ownership compulsorily and without compensation.

Confiscation of weapon, other hunting tools and ammunition may not be applied to persons, for whom hunting is the main source of survival.

The procedure for confiscation, the list of objects not subject to confiscation shall be established by the legislation of the USSR, this Code and other legislation of the Republic of Armenia.

Property belonging to a bona fide third party shall not be subject to confiscation. Within the meaning of this Article, a party shall be bona fide, where he or she did not know and could not have known that the property delivered thereby to another party will be used or is planned to be used as an instrument or a direct object for committing an administrative offence.

Article 28.¹ Suspension of the right to drive vehicles

1. Suspension of the right to drive vehicles may be imposed for a period of one month to six months.

(Article 28.¹ supplemented by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019)

Article 31.¹ Suspension of economic activity

1. Suspension of economic activity shall be temporary termination of the economic activity.

2. Suspension of economic activity may be imposed for a period of one month to three months.

(Article 31.¹1 supplemented by HO-456-N of 9 October 2020)

CHAPTER 4

IMPOSING AN ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY

Article 32. General rules for imposing a penalty for an administrative offence

A penalty shall be imposed for an administrative offence within the scope prescribed by the regulatory act providing for liability for the offence, in due compliance with the fundamentals of the legislation of the Union of SSR and the Union Republics on administrative offences, this Code and other acts on administrative offences.

When imposing a penalty, the nature of the offence committed, the personality of the offender, the degree of the guilt, property status thereof, circumstances mitigating and aggravating the liability shall be taken into consideration.

In cases when the violation of the road traffic rule has been captured through video-recording or photographing, the administrative liability provided for by this Code shall be borne by the owner of the vehicle (in case of state registration of the right of leasing — a lessee) (in case of a legal person or an individual entrepreneur — the head of the legal person or the individual entrepreneur, respectively), or the person considered to be the operator of the vehicle provided for by the Law "On ensuring road traffic safety", unless it is demonstrated that the violation has been committed by other person. The administrative penalty imposed in the form of penalty points shall be applied to persons referred to in this part, where they have the right to drive a vehicle of the given class.

The peculiarities of administrative proceedings conducted with respect to violations of road traffic rules detected through video-recording or photography devices shall be prescribed by law.

The peculiarities of the proceedings on cases concerning offences provided for by part 1 of Article 129.2 of this Code shall be prescribed by the Law of the Republic of Armenia "On compulsory insurance against liability arising from the use of motor vehicles".

(Article 32 supplemented by HO-26-N of 16 December 2005, edited by HO-73-N of 21 February 2007, HO-239-N of 26 December 2008, amended by HO-2-N of 7 February 2012, supplemented by HO-94-N of 19 June 2013, amended by HO-178-N of 21 December 2015, amended, supplemented by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019, amended by HO-320-N of 18 June 2020)

Article 33. Circumstances mitigating the liability for an administrative offence

The circumstances mitigating the liability for an administrative offence shall be the following:

- (1) sincere repentance by the guilty person;
- (2) preventing by the guilty person harmful consequences of the offence, voluntarily compensating for or eliminating the damage caused;
- (3) committing an offence in the heat of passion or by coincidence of difficult personal or family circumstances;
- (4) committing an offence by a minor;
- (5) committing an offence by a pregnant woman or a woman having a child under the age of one.

The legislation of the USSR and the Republic of Armenia may provide for also other circumstances mitigating the liability for an administrative offence. The body (official) disposing a case concerning the administrative liability may consider as mitigating also such circumstances that are not specified in the legislation.

Article 34. Circumstances aggravating the liability for an administrative offence

The circumstances aggravating the liability for an administrative offence shall be the following:

- (1) continuing the illegal behaviour despite the request of the body authorised therefor to stop it;
- (2) repeated commission of such an offence within one year, for which the person has already been subjected to an administrative penalty; committing an offence by a person having previously committed a crime;
- (3) involving a minor in the offence;
- (4) committing an offence by a group of persons;
- (5) committing an offence during a natural disaster or in other emergency circumstances;
- (6) committing an offence in the state of drunkenness. The body (official) imposing an administrative penalty, depending on the nature of the administrative offence, may not consider the given circumstance as aggravating.

Article 35. Imposing administrative penalties in case of committing several administrative offences

In case one person commits two or more administrative offences, an administrative penalty shall be imposed for each offence separately.

(Article 35 amended by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019)

Article 36. Calculating the time limit for deprivation of the special right

The time limit for deprivation of the special right shall be calculated in years, months or days.

(Article 36 edited by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005)

Article 37. Time limits for imposing an administrative penalty

An administrative penalty may be imposed not later than within two months from the day of committing the offence, except for the cases provided for by this Article, whereas in case of a continuing and continuous offence — within two months from the day of disclosing it, except for the cases provided for by this Article.

In cases where a decision is made not to institute criminal prosecution, to terminate criminal prosecution, not to initiate criminal proceedings, to dismiss criminal proceedings, or where an acquittal is rendered, but the actions of the offender contain elements of an administrative offence, an administrative penalty may be imposed within one month from the date on which the legally effective decision on refusing to institute criminal prosecution, terminating criminal prosecution, dismissing criminal proceedings, or the written notification on refusal to initiate criminal proceedings, or the legally effective acquittal is received by the authority (official) authorised to examine the case, but in any event no later than six months from the date on which the decision on refusing to institute criminal prosecution, terminating criminal prosecution, or dismissing criminal proceedings, or the acquittal enters into legal force, or from the date of refusal to initiate criminal proceedings.

The administrative penalty in cases concerning the violation of customs rules may be imposed within two months from the day of detecting the offence, but not later than within 3 years from the day of committing the offence.

Where the administrative offence could not be detected without conducting relevant inspections or observations, the administrative penalty may be imposed not later than within two months following the day of disclosing the administrative offence through the inspection or observation.

The administrative penalty in cases concerning administrative offences provided for by Articles 40.3, 189.13, 189.14, 189.15, 189.16, 189.19-189.24 of this Code may be imposed within two months following the day of detecting the offence, but not later than within two years following the commission of the offence, except for the cases provided for by part 4 of this Article.

6. Based on the statements of claim provided for by Article 223 of this Code the administrative penalty shall be imposed within the time limit prescribed by the Administrative Procedure Code of the Republic of Armenia.

7. The administrative penalty in cases concerning administrative offences provided for by Articles 169.28 and 169.31 of this Code may be imposed within one year following the commission of the offence.

7.1. The administrative penalty in cases concerning administrative penalties provided for by Article 166.1 of this Code may be imposed within three years following the commission of the offence.

8. The administrative penalty in cases concerning administrative offences in the field of protection of economic competition may be imposed within three months from the day of entry into force of the decision of the Commission for Protection of Competition and Consumer Interests confirming the fact of offence, except for offences committed by natural persons considered to be economic entities prescribed by the Law "On Protection of Economic Competition and Consumer Interests", in which case the administrative penalty may be imposed within the time limit provided for by part 1 of Article 95 of the Law "On Protection of Economic Competition And Consumer Interests".

9. In case of administrative offences recorded in inspection or other administrative acts drawn up following the tax control exercised by the tax authority the administrative penalty may be imposed not later than within two months after the inspection or other administrative act becomes unappealable.

10. Where the addressee of the administrative act has failed to appear at the proceedings on administrative offences in cases concerning administrative offences examined by the tax and customs authorities, and the Law excludes the possibility of adopting the relevant administrative act in his or her absence, or the adoption of the administrative act is possible only in case of identification of the addressee of that act, or an expert examination has been assigned, the administrative penalty may be imposed within one month after the addressee of the administrative act appears at the proceedings, the addressee of the administrative act is identified or the opinion of the expert examination is delivered, but not later than within one year from the day the offence is committed.

11. An administrative penalty in cases concerning administrative offences in the field of ensuring the state security may be imposed within three months from the day of entry into force of the decision confirming the fact of offence, but not later than within three years following the commission of the offence.

(Article 37 edited by HO-73 of 18 August 1993, HO-133-N of 23 June 1997, supplemented by HO-138-N of 13 June 2006, HO-155-N of 11 May 2011, HO-11-N of 9 February 2012, HO-143-N of 5 December 2013, amended by HO-15-N of 16 May 2014, supplemented by HO-106-N of 9 June 2017, HO-250-N of 23 March 2018, HO-200-N of 24 October 2019, amended by HO-206-N of 25 March 2020, HO-4-N of 29 December 2020, amended, supplemented by HO-94-N of 3 March 2021, supplemented by HO-289-N of 1 July 2021, HO-46-N of 4 March 2022, amended, supplemented by HO-542-N of 7 December 2022, supplemented by HO-87-N of 1 March 2023, edited by HO-113-N of 12 May 2025, amended by HO-210-N of 3 July 2025)

(Law HO-113-N of 12 May 2025 has a transitional provision)

Article 38. Time limit, after the expiry of which the person is considered not subjected to an administrative penalty

Where the person subjected to an administrative penalty has not committed a new administrative offence within one year from the day of completing the execution of a penalty, that person shall be considered as not subjected to an administrative penalty.

Article 39. Imposing an obligation to compensate for the damage caused

Where due to committing an administrative offence property damage is caused to a citizen, an enterprise, an institution or an organisation, the administrative commission, the executive committee of the township, village council of deputies, the Commission on Juvenile Cases, the people's judge shall, in resolving the issue of imposing a penalty for an administrative offence, have the right to concurrently resolve the issue of compensation by the guilty person for the property damage, unless the amount of the damage exceeds fifty drams, and the regional (city) people's court — irrespective of the amount of the damage.

In other cases the issue of compensation for the property damage caused by the administrative offence shall be resolved through civil procedure.

Article 40. Performance of the obligation, for non-performance of which an administrative penalty has been imposed

Imposing an administrative penalty shall not release the person having committed an administrative offence from performing the obligation, for non-performance of which an administrative penalty has been imposed.

Article 255. Content of record on administrative offence

The record on administrative offence shall specify the following: date and place of drawing it up; the position, name, father's name, and surname of the person drawing up a record; information on the personality of the violator; the place, time and nature of commission of an administrative offence; the normative act prescribing liability for the given violation; the surnames and addresses of victims and witnesses, where such exist; explanation of the violator; other information necessary for resolution of the case.

The record shall be signed by the person having drawn up it and the person having committed the administrative offence; in case of presence of the victims and witnesses the record may also be signed by those persons.

In case a person having committed an offence refuses to sign the record, and under the cases regarding the offences provided for by Articles 40.1, 40.2, 40.4, 40.6-40.9, 40.11, 40.13-40.19 also, if the person, being notified about the session, has failed to appear at the session or failed to participate in the drawing up of the record, a note shall be made on it. The person having committed an offence shall have the right to submit explanations attached to the record and comments on the content thereof, as well as lay down the motives for refusal to sign it.

While drawing up the record, and under the cases regarding the offences provided for by Articles 40.1, 40.2, 40.4, 40.6-40.9, 40.11, 40.13-40.19 — also in the notice, the violator shall be explained his or her rights and responsibilities provided for by Article 267 of this Code, which shall be noted in the record.

In case the record is drawn up digitally the signature of the person having committed an offence shall be received digitally, and the fact of his or her execution of the right to give explanation and make comments and content thereof shall be recorded through the video recording.

Where the offences provided for in Articles 124.6 and 126 of this Code are revealed as a result of an expert examination, the presence of the person having committed the administrative offence shall not be mandatory when drawing up the record on the administrative offence. In such case, the record shall be signed solely by the person having prepared it, and a copy of the record, as well as the notice on the rights and obligations of the person having committed the administrative offence provided for by Article 267 of this Code, shall be sent to the person subject to administrative liability together with the notice of the time and place of the examination of the case.

(Article 255 supplemented by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019, HO-511-N of 5 December 2024, HO-113-N of 12 May 2025)

(Law HO-113-N of 12 May 2025 has a transitional provision)

Article 256. Sending the record

The record shall be sent to the body (official) authorised for the examination of the case on the administrative offence.

Article 257. Cases where no record on administrative offence shall be drawn up

In case, where the person does not dispute the violation committed and an administrative default penalty or fine imposed to him as warning is not more than AMD 1.0, no record shall be drawn up. In such cases, the fine imposed may be charged at the place of the violation by the police officer. The violator shall be given a receipt of the prescribed sample of levying of penalty, which is a strict financial reporting document. A record shall also not be drawn up in other cases, where the fine in accordance with the legislation is imposed and charged, and warning is formulated at the place of commission of the administrative offence.

Where the violator disputes the fine imposed for committing an administrative offence prescribed by part 1 of this Article a record shall be drawn up pursuant to Article 254 of this Code.

(Article 257 edited on 10 March 1990, amended by HO-2-N of 7 February 2012)

Article 258. Bringing of the violator

Where drawing up a record is mandatory, where it is not possible to draw up it at the place, the violator may be brought to the police station by the police officer for the purpose of drawing up a record on the administrative offence.

In case of violations of the rules for using vehicles, maintaining traffic order and safety, rules aimed at ensuring safety of cargo in transport, fire-safety regulations, sanitary-hygienic, sanitary-epidemiological rules, and public health standards in transport, the violator may be brought to the police station by an authorised person where he or she does not have identity document and there are no witnesses, which may communicate the necessary data on the violator.

In case of violations of environmental legislation, for the purpose of drawing up a record, where the violator cannot be identified at the place of violation, inspectors of the body prescribed by Article 242 of this Code, including public inspectors, as well as eco-patrol officials and police officers may bring the persons having committed these offences to the police station to prevent offences, identify the personality of the violator, and draw up a record on the offence.

In case of offences related to encroachment on protected objects, other state or public property, the violator may by the militarised protection officers be brought to the militarised protection service building or police station for the purpose of preventing offences, identify the personality of the violator and draw up a record on the violation.

The bringing shall be carried out within the shortest possible period.

The stay of the person brought at the voluntary people's druzhina headquarters may not exceed 1 hour.

In case of committing administrative offences provided for by Articles 224 of this Code, the violator may be brought to the police station by an authorised person, if he or she does not have identity documents, the person having committed the alleged administrative offence refuses to be identified using mobile video recording or photographic technical devices, or it is impossible to conduct identification using these devices.

CHAPTER 20

ADMINISTRATIVE ARREST, INSPECTION OF ITEMS, TAKING OF ITEMS AND DOCUMENTS

Article 259. Measures to ensure proceeding for cases on administrative offences

In cases directly provided for by the legislative acts of the USSR and the Republic of Armenia for the purpose of preventing administrative offences, where other enforcement measures have been exhausted, in order to identify the person or draw up a record on the administrative offence, where it is impossible to draw it up at the place and where it is mandatory to draw up a record, in order to examine the cases in due time and properly and to ensure execution of the decisions on administrative offence cases, it shall be allowed to perform identification and administrative arrest of a person, personal inspection, inspection of items and to take the items and documents.

Article 292. Examination of appeal and appeal against the decision on the case on administrative offence.

The body (official) examining the appeal or the appeal against the case, shall verify the legality and substantiation of the decision adopted.

Article 293. Decision of the body (official) examining appeal or appeal

The body (official) examining the appeal or the appeal against the decision on the case shall adopt one of the following decisions:

(1) shall leave the decision unaltered and dismiss the appeal or the appeal;

(2) shall reverse the decision and remand the case for a new examination;

(3) shall reverse the decision and dismiss the case;

(4) within the framework provided for by the regulatory act on liability for an administrative offence, shall change the measure of the imposed penalty, but in a way not to tighten the penalty.

Where it becomes clear that the decision has been adopted by a body (official) not competent to examine the case, the decision shall be reversed and sent for an examination by a competent body.

A copy of the decision regarding the appeal or the appeal against the decision on the case on administrative offence shall be sent- as prescribed by Article 283 of this Code — to the person against whom it has been adopted, to the victim upon his or her request. The prosecutor shall be notified of the results of the examination of the appeal.

(Article 293 amended by HO-178-N of 21 December 2015)

Article 294. Powers of the people's judge, head of the body of Internal Affairs, chairman of the Supreme Court and head of the superior body of Internal Affairs

(article repealed by HO-2-N of 7 February 2012)

Article 295. Appealing the decision on appeal

The prosecutor may appeal the decision on the appeal of the case on the administrative offence.

The appeal against the decision on the appeal shall be filed with the superior body (official) to the body (official) adopting the decision on the appeal.

Article 296. The consequences of reversing the decision by dismissing the case on administrative offence

Reversing the decision by dismissing the case on administrative offence shall result in return of levied money, and objects confiscated and taken by compensation, as well as elimination of restrictions regarding the previous decision. In case of impossibility to return the object, its value shall be reimbursed.

(Article 296 amended by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005)

SECTION V

ENFORCEMENT OF DECISIONS ON IMPOSING ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

CHAPTER 24

MAIN PROVISIONS

Article 297. Binding nature of a decision on imposing an administrative penalty

The decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall be binding for the state and public bodies, enterprises, institutions, organizations, officials and citizens.

Article 298. Execution of the decision

The decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall be binding upon the moment being rendered, unless otherwise stipulated by the legislation of the USSR, this Code and other legislation of the Republic of Armenia.

In case of appealing or appealing the decision on imposing an administrative penalty, the decision shall be subject to enforcement after leaving the appeal or appeal unsatisfied, except for the decisions on imposing a penalty in the form of a warning, as well as in cases of imposing a fine levied at the place of committing an administrative offence.

The decision on imposing an administrative penalty in the form of a fine shall be subject to compulsory enforcement as prescribed by part 1 of Article 305 of this Code after the expiry of the time limit laid down for the voluntary performance.

The decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall be executed by the body (official) rendering the decision.

Article 299. Enforcement of decisions on imposing an administrative penalty

In case of several decisions on imposing administrative penalties against the same person, each decision shall be executed separately.

In case of paying at least 70% of the fine imposed within 15 days from the date following the day of delivery (notification) of the decision —as prescribed by Article 283 of this Code — on imposing administrative penalty in the form of fine provided for by Articles 123, 123.1, 123.3, 123.4 (except for the offences provided for by parts 3 and 4), Article 123.5 (except for the offences provided for by parts 8, 9, 14 and 15), Articles 123.6, 123.7, 124, 124.1, 124.2, 124.3, 124.4, 124.6, 125, 125.1, 126, 128, part 1 of Article 129.2, Articles 131, 132, 134, 135.2, the obligation to pay the fine shall be considered as fully fulfilled, except for the case of appealing (appealing) against the decision on imposing an administrative penalty.

(Article 299 edited by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005, supplemented by HO-97-N of 28 February 2024)

(Law HO-97-N of 28 February 2024 has a transitional provision)

Article 300. Postponement of enforcement of a decision on imposing an administrative penalty

In the presence of circumstances, as a result of which the immediate execution of the decision on imposing an administrative penalty in the form of a fine (except for the penalty levied at the place of committing an administrative offence) is not possible, the body (official) rendering the decision may postpone the execution of the decision for up to one month.

(Article 300 amended by HO-32-N of 16 December 2005)

Article 301. Termination of execution of the decision on imposing an administrative penalty

The body (official) having rendered a decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall terminate the execution of the decision in the following cases:

(1) in case of adoption of a law on amnesty, where it eliminates the imposition of an administrative penalty;

(2) in case of abolition of the act prescribing administrative liability;

(3) in case of death of the person against whom the decision has been rendered.

(Article 301 amended by HO-372-N of 12 July 2018)

Article 302. Statute of limitations for execution of decisions on imposing administrative penalties

The decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall not be subject to execution, where it has not been executed within a period of 3 months following the date it has become unappealable, except for decisions on imposing an administrative penalty regarding administrative offences provided for by Articles 123, 123¹, 123², 123³, 123⁴, 123⁵, 123⁶, 123⁷, 124, 124¹, 124², 124³, 124⁴, 124⁵, 124⁶, 125, 126, 128, 129, 129², 129³, 131, 131¹, 132, 133, 140, part 2 of Article 158, Articles 182, 188, 189¹³, 189¹⁴, 189¹⁵, 189¹⁶, 189¹⁹-189²⁴, in which case the decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall not be subject to execution where it has not been executed within one year from the day of rendering it. In case the execution of the decision is suspended in accordance with the Article 290 of this Code, the statute of limitations shall be suspended until the appealation or appeal is examined. In case the execution of the decision is suspended in accordance with the Article 300 of this Code, the statute of limitations shall be suspended until expiry of postponement period.

More extended period for execution of decisions regarding certain types of cases on the administrative offences may be defined provided for by the legislation of the USSR and the Republic of Armenia.

(Article 302 supplemented by HO-26-N of 16 December 2005, amended by HO-73-N of 21 February 2007, supplemented by HO-134-N of 27 February 2007, amended by HO-296-N of 6 December 2007, supplemented by HO-65-N of 18 May 2010, amended by HO-11-N of 9 February 2012, supplemented by HO-2-N of 7 February 2012, amended by HO-94-N of 19 June 2013, supplemented by HO-300-N of 9 December 2019, amended by HO-4-N of 29 December 2020, HO-343-N of 25 October 2023, HO-19-N of 16 January 2024, supplemented by HO-362-N of 2 October 2024, amended by HO-210-N of 3 July 2025)

Article 303. Resolution of issues related to execution of decisions

The body having rendered the decision shall resolve the issue regarding execution of decision on imposing an administrative penalty.

Supervision over the execution of decision on imposing an administrative penalty shall be conducted by the body (official) having rendered the decision.

CHAPTER 25

PROCEEDINGS FOR ENFORCEMENT OF THE DECISION ON WARNING

Article 304. Procedure for enforcement of the decision on warning

The decision on imposing an administrative penalty in the form of a warning is executed by the authority (official) having rendered the decision through announcing the decision after the examination of the case has been completed.

In case the decision on imposing an administrative penalty in the form of a warning is rendered in the absence of the violator, a copy of the decision shall be delivered to latter provided for by Article 283 of this Code.
